INSPIRATIONS

perfect ambience
for perfect
communication

Not only the contents of the conference, also the manner of communication plays a big role when people meet each other during a conference.

The architecture and atmosphere of the Alte Lokhalle offers you the perfect ambience for this kind of event - that the message gets through.

Depending on size and requirement of your event, there are seats for up to 800 people available. You can also choose a parliamentary seating with tables for up to 300 people.

Additionally you can use the space for more event elements (e.g. information stands, presentation walls, separate workshops or seminars).

With this documentation we would like to entrust some ideas and examples for your event.
